ABRAHAM LINCOLN SCHOOL
NEW BEDFORD, MASS.

Jan. 17, 1927.

Mr. Nahum Nickelson, Commander, and officers and comrades of Post one G.A.R.
New Bedford Mass.

Dear Friends:

The recent death of your loyal comrade - Senior Vice Commander John F. Lawrence, impels me to write on behalf of the pupils and teachers and tell you how deeply we feel his loss at the Abraham Lincoln School. At the same time I wish to voice my personal tribute to his many excellent qualities.

Ever since our school was organized we have felt honored in having at least one Grand Army veteran present at our Memorial Day exercises. We have been particularly proud to have had as our speaker for a number of years, the late Comrade Lawrence. When he appeared on the platform of our auditorium, he seemed to inspire the boys and girls to do their best, and at the end of the children's program he brought to them and their teachers a quiet and kindly message which was full of the true spirit of Memorial Day.

It is a strange coincidence that within two weeks of his death, fully half of the children together with ten of their teachers will leave our school to attend the new Junior High School. We feel sure they will carry with them the high and patriotic ideals which Mr Lawrence cherished.

You will be interested to know that these boys and girls eagerly brought their pennies to provide a suitable floral tribute. They also showed a marked interest in the note of sympathy which was sent to the members of his family.

I feel sure that the Memorial Day exercises of the future at the Abraham Lincoln School will take on a more personal tone, for we shall then be paying tribute to our departed friend, Comrade Lawrence.

Very sincerely yours,
John W. Northcott.
